

View this email in your browser

MEET THE FLAMENCO MUSICIANS
AT OPENING NIGHT WITH COMPLIMENTARY CATERING BY

Buy Tickets Now

Macho Flamenco interview
featuring Writer & Director Matthew Posey:

<https://youtu.be/yi3g2hQHbvA>

Juani de la Isla

Juani de la Isla is an internationally-touring flamenco guitarist and nominee for the prestigious Isadora Duncan "Izzie" Awards. He has performed with some of the finest artists of our time in live concerts, and his music is recorded on more than 100 albums of major artists in Spain, including one of his own, with a second solo disc in production.

Francisco Orozco "Yiyi"

Francisco Orozco "Yiyi" is a riveting musician from an Andalusian family in which he was recognized as a child prodigy of percussion. He has worked internationally as a singer and percussionist since he was 17 years old, performing across Europe, Asia, South America and the United States of America.

José Cortés Fernández

José Cortés Fernández is an award-winning singer from a Gypsy family with roots in Almería, Spain. He has been working professionally since age 10 across Spain and in the United States of America, performing with some of the most important flamenco artists of our time.

Buy Tickets Now

Mil Gracias

Presented by The Eugene McDermott Foundation and generously supported by the City of Dallas of Arts and Culture, The Theodore and Beulah Beasley Foundation, and the Texas Commission on the Arts.

www.theflamefoundation.org

Copyright © 2026 The Dallas Flamenco Festival, All rights reserved.

Want to change how you receive these emails?
You can update your preferences or unsubscribe from this list.

